RE: Homicide

On November 11, 2003 at approximately 10:40 pm the Communications Center for the Broken Arrow Police Department received numerous calls reporting gunshots heard in the area of the 1300 Block of South Narcissus. Uniformed Officers arrived at the scene at approximately 10:45 pm and found an adult white female victim slumped over behind the wheel of a 2003 Toyota Corolla. The victim had suffered multiple gunshot wounds. Life support efforts for the victim were unsuccessful due to the extensive injuries. At approximately 11:45 pm the suspect/ex-husband turned himself into authorities at the Uniform Division Southwest of the Tulsa Police Department. Detectives and Officers from the Broken Arrow Police Department responded to Uniform Division Southwest to interview the suspect. The suspect is in custody for murder. The suspect's vehicle has been impounded for processing. Preliminary information indicates that the crime may have been a domestic disturbance between the suspect and victim.
